

Please uphold the Telephone Privacy Act. There is no reason that a company you already do business with needs to call you and solicit more business, especially during time that is set aside for family.

Thanks, Stacy Adams